Privacy Policy Preparation & Implementation: ₹15,000/-

The above fee covers preparation of the Web-specific privacy policy and implementation of the policy page on the Web. Any requirement for detailed legal consultation, legal opinion, regulatory representation or review by a qualified advocate/legal professional will be charged separately.

5. Recommended Web Package

For the recommended package can include:

Complete responsive Web design + development + existing Web repair + technical SEO + HTML/CSS/JavaScript corrections + mobile compatibility + contact/enquiry functionality + basic security checks + W3C-oriented validation + deployment assistance.

Professional Package Price

₹1,50,000/-

Amount in words: Rupees One Lakh Fifty Thousand Only.

This package is recommended where both new development and repair/upgradation of an existing Web are required.

6. Hosting, Domain & Third-Party Services

Domain registration, premium plugins, paid APIs, third-party software, SSL certificates where separately chargeable, premium fonts/assets, hosting upgrades and other third-party services are not included unless specifically mentioned in the final work order.

Existing hosting/server infrastructure may be retained where technically suitable.

7. Payment Terms

40% Advance – At the time of project confirmation

30% Milestone Payment – After completion of design and major development

30% Final Payment – Before final deployment/handover

Work outside the agreed scope will be quoted separately.

8. Estimated Project Duration

The estimated completion period is 20–30 working days, depending on:

- Availability of Web access
- Existing-code condition
- Content and images supplied by the client
- Number of pages and functionalities
- Third-party API/integration requirements
- Timely feedback and approvals

Web repair work may begin immediately after receiving the required access and project confirmation.

9. Technical Standards

The development approach may include:

HTML5, CSS3, JavaScript, jQuery, Bootstrap, PHP, MySQL, responsive web design, W3C validation, WCAG-oriented accessibility practices, technical SEO, Google-friendly page structure, security practices, performance optimization and cross-device compatibility.

These services are consistent with the web design, development, maintenance, accessibility and technical support capabilities described on the Shani Shashidharan Web.

10. Warranty & Support

A limited post-delivery support period will be provided for correcting development-related issues within the agreed project scope.

Changes involving new functionality, additional pages, new designs, content creation or third-party services will be treated as additional work.

11. Important Terms

1. The quotation is based on the currently understood scope of work.
2. Final pricing may be revised if the existing Web requires substantial redevelopment.

3. Client-provided content, logos, photographs and other materials must be supplied in usable formats.
 4. Third-party software, APIs, hosting and paid services are subject to their respective providers' terms and charges.
 5. Source-code handover and administrative access will be provided according to the agreed project terms.
 6. Any work outside the approved scope will require additional quotation/approval.
 7. The quotation is valid for 30 days from the quotation date.
 8. Taxes, if applicable, will be charged separately.

Web Ownership, Source Files & Acquisition

The existing Web, its source files, design, development work, framework, structure, intellectual property and associated technical assets are not owned by the prospective client and are not automatically transferable merely through Web repair, redesign or development services.

The Web files may be made available for direct editing and technical work only for the purpose of the agreed development/repair project. Such access does not constitute transfer of ownership or intellectual-property rights.

If you requires complete ownership and acquisition of the existing Web, including the applicable source files, design, development work, intellectual property and associated rights, such transfer will be treated as a separate Web acquisition/purchase transaction.

Minimum Web Acquisition Value

USD 300,000 (Three Hundred Thousand US Dollars)

or the equivalent amount in Indian Rupees at the applicable exchange rate on the date of agreement/payment.

Indicative value: approximately ₹2.5 crore, subject to the prevailing USD/INR exchange rate.

The acquisition price is separate from Web repair, redesign, development, maintenance, hosting, domain registration and other technical service charges.

No ownership or intellectual-property transfer shall be deemed to have occurred unless a separate written acquisition/transfer agreement is executed and the agreed acquisition consideration has been received.

Important

Web repair or development charges do not include purchase of the existing Web.

The client may receive the necessary access to perform the contracted work, while ownership remains with the existing owner unless and until the Web is formally purchased and transferred under a separate agreement.

GitHub Repository & Source Code Transfer

Upon completion of the agreed Web acquisition transaction and receipt of the full acquisition consideration, the existing GitHub repository associated with the Web may be transferred to the purchaser, subject to GitHub's applicable terms and conditions.

The transfer may include:

- Complete GitHub repository and source-code files
- Web HTML, CSS, JavaScript and related files
- PHP/MySQL source code, where applicable
- Custom frameworks and development components created specifically for the Web
- Web configuration and deployment files, where transferable
- Git history and repository records, where agreed
- Documentation relating to the Web and its development
- Necessary repository access and administrative transfer to the purchaser's nominated GitHub account/organization

Ownership and Transfer

The GitHub repository transfer shall form part of the Web Acquisition & Intellectual Property Transfer Agreement.

Repository access provided for development, repair or maintenance before completion of the acquisition does not constitute ownership transfer.

Upon completion of the acquisition and payment of the agreed purchase consideration, the repository will be transferred to the purchaser's nominated GitHub account or GitHub organization, subject to any third-party components, licenses or assets that cannot legally be transferred.

Acquisition Value

The overall Web acquisition value may vary depending on the scope of assets and rights being transferred:

₹2.52 Crore to ₹21 Crore

Rupees Two Crore Fifty-Two Lakh to Rupees Twenty-One Crore Only.

The exact acquisition value, assets included, intellectual-property rights and GitHub repository transfer conditions shall be specified in the final Web Acquisition & Intellectual Property Transfer Agreement.

Web design, development, repair and maintenance charges are separate from the Web acquisition price.
